SPOTLIGHT

Pops 511

By Jessica Hasting, Midlands Associate MSR

“Welcome to Pops!” Every customer is greeted as they walk through the doors of Pops 511 in Ridgeway. Regulars stroll in for made-to-order hot dogs, snacks, gas, friendly service, and LOTTERY. There is a sense of family and friendship in the air, which manifests into a loyal and steady customer base. Their lottery display is the first thing you see as you walk through the door. Ivy, pictured, is the manager and has been serving up award winning customer service for six years here. Teamed up with assistant manager Stacy (not pictured), the duo and their crew are a dream team of friendly conversation and even friendlier smiles (even behind a mask). So what keeps players purchasing here? Ivy and Stacy keep a revolving supply of the hottest tickets on a full display and are knowledgeable in all games. They can answer any question on how to play. They’re always happy to take their time with each player, and advertise via word of mouth which games are new and also promote the SCEL app and Second Chance Games. Great customer service combined with knowledge and a full display of tickets and stocked playslips is the winning combination to repeat players.

Ivy, Manager of Pops 511

A MESSAGE OF THANKS & GRATITUDE

This Thanksgiving, all of us at the South Carolina Education Lottery are thankful for YOU, our retailers. The hard work and tremendous resolve you’ve shown during this challenging year has not gone unnoticed or unappreciated. In this issue of Selling Points, we want to share a few winner’s stories of thanks and gratitude that YOU made possible. Every ticket you sell, not just these, has an impact. We wish you a well-deserved and Happy Thanksgiving.

A recently married couple has 250,000 more reasons to celebrate their new life together. The husband bought a ticket at Jack’s Convenience Store on Pageland Hwy. in Lancaster and gave it to his bride. She had the golden touch, winning them a $250,000 lottery prize. The newly-wed’s plans, “We are going to start our own business.”

A 15-minute drive separates two lucky stores in Anderson. The Old Portman BP on Whitehall Rd. sold a $125,000. winner Across town, Shiva2018 LLC on E. Greenville St. sold a $250,000 ticket. The $125K winner said, “The win took a burden off me and my family.”

A Clinton player filled up her car and her wallet. The winner was pumping gas and scratching a ticket outside the Piedmont Petro Corner Mart #49 on Hwy. 72 in Clinton. Days after scratching off the $30,000 win, the winner confessed she forgot to finish putting gas in her car.

After a long day, a Lancaster woman was relaxing by scratching a ticket from the S & S Food Mart on Hwy. 9 in Lancaster and won $75,000. “I fell into my husband’s arms,” she said. He held her and said, “We are going to use this to help ourselves, help others, and hopefully be lucky enough to do it again.”

A Midlands man won the Lottery, but he didn’t know for how much. He asked the clerk at the Circle Quick Stop on Columbia Hwy. in Leesville to take a look at the ticket. The clerk told him he won $250,000. “You’re joking,” he said. The winner plans to help his neighbors.

A wife’s request to stop and use the bathroom led to her husband’s $500,000 win. At the Aynor Food Mart on Hwy. 501 E. in Aynor, the husband filled up the car and noticed someone scratching a ticket. He ran inside to get the same ticket and returned jumping up and down screaming, “$500,000!” More road trips are planned.

It was a Boiling Springs player’s lucky day when the S & J Mart on the Asheville Hwy. was sold out of her favorite ticket. She picked out another ticket, scratched it and won $250,000. “I started sobbing,” she said.
